DNM, Ph.D.
Quantum Care

Most patients who seek Dr. Stacy Musselman's expertise have heard about her comprehensive blood analysis and Quantum Care program by word of mouth or from one of her lectures, health talks or interviews.

Dr. Musselman holds a master's degree in nutrition and a Ph.D. in natural medicine. As a board-certified holistic health practitioner, she is an advocate of preventive medicine and practices functional medicine. Dr. Musselman has developed a program focused on increasing optimal biomarkers with quantum protocols to provide personalized care based on a patient's unique blood chemistry and lifestyle.

With Quantum Care, patients receive a comprehensive health report detailing their biomarkers, probability of dysfunctions and recommendations based on her findings within the patterns and trends of their bloodwork. Dr. Musselman explains the complicated health report in an understandable straightforward way that invites the patient to become part of the solution with subtle yet sustainable changes and supplementation protocols. "Education and personal accountability are paramount with my programs," she explains.

Her patients benefit from non-synthetic, non-toxic, (safe and natural) protocols with the ease of having supplements and products home delivered. Office visits along with blood draws are done in the safety and privacy of a patient's home with her concierge services, followed up with virtual consults.

From male and female hormonal issues to diabetes, nutritional deficiencies and undiagnosed conditions yet to be discovered, Dr. Musselman is a wealth of knowledge whose Quantum Care program provides patients with increased health benefits they desire all while being part of the solution.
